Sean Campbell is an experienced trial lawyer known for his innovative and enterprising approach to cases.

Sean Campbell is a founding partner of Tyr LLP. Prior to founding Tyr LLP in June 2019, he was a senior partner at Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP in the Litigation, and Financial Restructuring & Insolvency practices.

Clients in diverse sectors choose Sean to advise on commercial litigation, securities and class action litigation, shareholder disputes and competition matters. They appreciate his practical and creative approach to high-stakes, multi-jurisdictional litigation. Sean represents clients of various sizes on matters before the OSC's Capital Markets Tribunal, the Competition Tribunal and all levels of court in Canada.

Sean has represented some of Canada's largest companies in the telecommunications, mining and energy sectors, in both court and arbitration proceedings under both international and domestic arbitral regimes. Most recently, Sean was co-lead counsel in a mining dispute representing one of Canada's largest mining companies before the International Chamber of Commerce.
